

Criteria for Seeking New Rec Board Members and Coordinators

Criteria

- Want people who are willing to do the work needed and fill the holes
- Willing to and has the time meet as often as needed
- Must attend a meeting before committing.
- Discuss what we are looking for in character of a person- Someone who's
 - not combative, but has an opinion of their own.
 - positive
 - can relate to children as well as adults
 - can support the decisions made
 - wants to make it better, whatever that may be

NOTES:

Good to have a mix of people who have/don't have kids in program

Would like a woman to balance men vs women also it would bring diversity of thought

Interview Questions

- What do they envision recreation to be
- How would you improve the program
- Attend meeting before committing.
- What projects have they done in the past that relate to leading or being a part of a group/team
- Do they have the time commitment;
 - Attend meetings-board, coordinator, coaches, league, others as needed.
 - Attend sporting events
 - Work weekends
- Have any referrals
- Why do they want to join – perceive problems? What projects have they done in the past?
- Willing and able to accept duties currently open
 - For 2011
 - Surveys
 - Community Day
 - Online Registration
 - Open Space
 - Basketball Liaison